Radu Territory: The Radu family owns several blocks of residences and businesses. The clan has its own home here and everyone in the neighbourhood is either employed by the family or bound to it by debt or blood ties. The family patriarch, Anton Radu, may be found in his palatial lair in the eastern end of the district near the gates. [K:KoA]

History: At the beginning of Traldar's Dark Age (around 800BC), Vandar tribesmen from the Hin lands reached Marilenev, and settled the site now known as the Stronghold district. The Traldar kings welcomed them to help repopulate the town after its losses created by the threat of a Beastmen invasion. Within three centuries, the fusion of Vandars and Traldars resulted in a new race - the Traladarans.

Over the next several centuries, Marilenev's trading expanded as its commerce reached Minroth, The Five Shires, Darokin, Ylarum, Rockhome, the Gnome Caravan, and Thyatis. The growth of seaborne trade saw the immediate area around Mirror Bay developed to provide berthing and cargo facilities for vessels from overseas.

The failure of the Traladaran League in 612AC left the Duchy of Marilenev deprived of much of its political power. The Radu family (a powerful merchant group) lead the trade guild in ousting Duke Alexandr Marilenev and create an oligarchic republic, the City-State of Marilenev initially controlled from the Stronghold district. The Radus solidified their hold on the merchant guild in the coming centuries. They gained popular among the people through acts of charity, like digging the great irrigation channel during the Great Drought (613AC). In 675AC Illija Radu fortified the Stronghold district and started a political campaign to extend the fortifications to whole town. The construction of the city walls was financed by Marilenev's Town Council in 681AC as the Vampire Wars rage across Traladara. The Radu family remains a powerful faction in present-day Specularum exercising its control of the Merchants' Guild, of the Stronghold district and of other activities.
